

Summer course: Memory, art, tourism and heritage

Els Juliors 2015

Coordinator: Jordi Guixé i Coromines

6 - 10 July - Memory is a cultural common place where nowadays we can find the most innovative researches with an important academic and professional projection. The different ways to deal with it make of memory an interdisciplinary topic, which involves historians, anthropologists, sociologists, artists, curators, architects and other disciplines in the field of Arts and Humanities.

Organized in the mark of the summer school “Els Juliors” of University of Barcelona, this course is an attempt of showing how the uses of memory can affect and interact with heritage and art both from a national and international point of view. The increasing of an ethical tourism linked to memory is also among the main concerns of the debate.
