

Portugal, April 25th-26th 2019

The Holocaust as a Starting Point 2

Venue Memoshoa, Largo das Conchas, Casa da Cidadania, nº6
1750-155, Lisbon

Participants Portuguese, Catalan

Languages Portuguese, Spanish, English, French

Coordinators Bruno Boyer, Mémorial de la Shoah
Esther Mucznik, Memoshoá
Jordi Guixé, EUROM

Moderators Bruno Boyer, Mémorial de la Shoah
Esther Mucznik, Memoshoá
David González, EUROM

EUROM
EUROPEAN
OBSERVATORY
ON MEMORIES

Fundació Solidaritat
UNIVERSITAT DE BARCELONA

Ministère fédéral
des Affaires étrangères

This seminar is supported by the Federal Republic of Germany

April 25th , Thursday

9.00am	Opening Bruno Boyer – Memorial Shoah Esther Mucznik – Memoshoa Jordi Guixé – EUROM Icebreaking activity
9.45am	Why teach history ? Jonathan Even-Zohar
11.00am	The roots of anti-Semitism in Europe, Joël Kotek, Free university of Brussels
12.00am	Coffe break
12.30pm	The expulsions of the Jews from the Iberica Peninsula Esther Mucznik, Mémoshoa
1.30 pm	Lunch
2.30 pm	Comparing la limpieza de sangre and the Nuremberg laws ? Christiane Stallaert, university of Antwerp
4.00 pm	Coffe break
4.15 pm	Guided tour on Lisbon Jewish history

April 26th , Friday

9.00am	A new approach of the Spanish Civil War Paul Preston, London School of Economics
10.15am	Coffe break
10.30am	The Portuguese in Nazi concentration camps Claudia Ninhos, New university of Lisbon
11.30am	The Spanish perpetrators in Occupied France Jordi Guixe, Eurom
12.30pm	Workshop “Good practices exchange” PORTUGAL-CATALUNYA
13.30pm	Lunch
3.00pm	Teaching the Holocaust today: Lessons Learned and new Challenges. N.N.
4.00 pm	Mass killings, forced labor in Spanish and Portuguese Colonization (XV-XVII) Frederic Dorel, Ecole Centrale de Nantes