

HRANT DINK FOUNDATION

The Hrant Dink Foundation was established in 2007 following the assassination of Hrant Dink in order to carry on his dreams, his struggle, his language and his heart. The Hrant Dink Foundation, which defines the development of culture of dialogue, peace and empathy as the basis of all its activities, carries out distinctive projects within the framework of different programs such as ‘Culture and Arts’, ‘Education’, ‘History’, ‘Democratization and Human Rights’ and ‘Turkey-Armenia Relations’. Some of the aims and activities of the Foundation are as follows:

- To ameliorate cultural relations among the peoples of Turkey, Armenia and Europe
- To support Turkey’s democratization process and to contribute to the promotion and protection of human rights, minority rights and cultural rights
- To support efforts to write histories devoid of nationalism and racism; to encourage academic studies on violations of minority rights and human rights
- To conduct oral history studies that aim to question the official narrative and to create a collective memory
- To combat hate and discriminatory speech through documentation and awareness raising activities
- To carry out projects and activities in order to preserve and promote Armenian history and culture
- To design projects on dealing with the past that will contribute to building a healthy future
- To archive and publish articles, pictures and documents of Hrant Dink
