The 7th edition of EUROM's annual network meeting "Taking Stock of European Memory Policies" will delve into the diversity of memories and citizens' participation, focusing on the priorities set by the European Commission and the latest resolutions adopted by the European Parliament.

The event aims to spotlight the advancements in recognizing and promoting Europe's diverse memories. Special attention will be given to the histories and experiences of the LGBTIQ+ community, the Sinti and Roma people, and persons with disabilities.

Discussions will tackle the ongoing challenges in fostering greater citizen participation, with a particular emphasis on youth engagement.

Organized by the European Observatory on Memories of the University of Barcelona's Solidarity Foundation in collaboration with the Maison Jean Monnet - European Parliament. Co-funded by the programme Citizens, Equality, Rights and Values of the European Commission.
